BRITISH SUBMARINE SUNK BY MINE WHILE IT CHASES TWO GERMAN VESSELS IN NORTH SEA

Special Cable to Washington Herald. Paris, Nov. 3.—By a furious counterattack the French center army today wrecked the German wedge which was being driven at a point to the east of Vailly, on the Aisne.

The important position of La Ferme de Metz, occupied by the Germans several days ago, was recaptured by the French, who cut the Germans to pieces with their quick-fire guns, raked them with artillery fire, and then charged them with cold steel, inflicting heavy losses.

Rheims Again Bombarded. Earlier in the day the German attacks had become so furious that the French troops who occupied advanced positions on the slopes of the plateau to the north of the village of Chavonne and Boupi were compelled to withdraw to the valley, but those at Amont were able to resist successfully, maintaining their position in the face of terrible cannonading and rifle fire.

The Germans have resumed the bomb-

Special Cable to Washington Herald. London, Nov. 3.—Russia and Great Britain today began vigorous offensive campaigns against Turkey.

According to an official announcement from Constantinople, Russian troops attacked the Turks on the Caucasian frontier at several points, but were compelled to retire. The energetic resistance of the Turkish troops, according to the claims of the Turkish war ministry, was responsible for heavy losses suffered by the Russians.

British Occupy Akabah. The British cruiser Minerva attacked the fortified town of Akabah in Arabia, on the arm of the Red Sea and occupied the seaport after destroying the barracks, the forts and the postoffice. It was at Akabah that Turkish cavalry forces were mobilizing to move into Egypt. Akabah is on the Turko-Egyptian frontier.

According to wireless reports from Berlin dispatches have been received from Athens stating that 15,000 Turkish troops already are in Egypt and the Turkish

TSINGTAU TOTTERING; FINAL ASSAULT ON

Parts of City in Flames from Shells Hurlled by Land Batteries and Warships.

By LEONARD C. AMES.

Pekin, Nov. 3.—Although two German forts of Tsingtau have been replying for three days and three nights to the bombardment of the Anglo-Japanese fleet, there have been no casualties upon the ships.

Most of the German batteries have been silenced. One of the important German forts is in flames, the fire having been communicated from oil tanks struck by shells.

London, Nov. 2.—The official press bureau tonight made the following statement:

"The forces besieging Tsingtau, the German Chinese possession, are energetically organizing for an attack upon enemy's positions, using heavy siege guns."

"A general bombardment has opened. Simultaneously the blockading fleet is concentrating its fire on the enemy's forts with considerable effect."

"The dockyard at Tsingtau is afire and much damage already has been done."

WHITMAN WINS OVER GLYNN BY 129,642 VOTES

Wadsworth Elected Senator, Beating James W. Gerard by Probably 55,000.

SULZER VOTE IS REASON

Roosevelt and Bull Moose Ticket Fail, Losing Many Thousand Ballots.

DEMOCRATS ARE DISLODGED

Lose Eight Representatives and Control of Both Houses in Legislature.

New York, Nov. 3.—Charles S. Whitman, Republican, was elected governor by a plurality of 129,642, over Martin H. Glynn, Democratic. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Republican, defeated James W. Gerard, Democrat, by a plurality of probably 55,000, and the Republicans were given control of both branches of the legislature. In a great Republican landslide which swept New York State today, more than 200,000 votes were changed.

The Democrats were completely dislodged from control of the State after four years of rule.

William Sulzer's vote defeated Glynn. The ferocious campaigning of Col. Roosevelt may be accounted a failure.

The Progressive vote showed a slump in every part of the State. It was about one-fifth of the 23,183 polled for Mr. Straus two years ago.

Gerard ran many thousands ahead of the Glynn ticket, not only in the city of New York, but in the country districts. In New York he received 122,000 plurality against Glynn's 57,000.

The Democratic representation in the House of Representatives was reduced from 21 to 21.

The State Senate probably will contain 22 Republicans and 18 Democrats, and the assembly 16 Republicans and 44 Democrats.

Landslide for Penrose Given 250,000 Plurality

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Boies Penrose, Republican candidate for re-election to the United States Senate, and Martin B. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for governor, were swept into power by an unprecedented landslide that practically wiped out the Washington party in this State. The plurality for the Republican party apparently will reach 250,000.

Gifford Pinchot, the Washington party candidate for the Senate, supported in a whirlwind tour of the State by Col. Theodore Roosevelt and A. Mitchell Palmer, the Democratic candidate supported by President Wilson, together received barely one-fourth the number of votes as were polled for the Republican candidate.

McCormick Badly Beaten. The Democratic-Washington party candidate for governor, Vance C. McCormick, was a badly beaten candidate. In Philadelphia the Republican majority was over 100,000, according to late returns every ward going Republican, and outside of the city the figures rolled up signified a steady return to the Republican ranks by voters who affiliated with the Bull Moose ticket two years ago, despite the strenuous efforts of Col. Roosevelt to hold the party in line. The former President's personal canvass of the State in the interests of Gifford Pinchot brought a denunciation of Penrose in practically every county of the State.

For Congress: First district—James D. Price, Dem., of Salisbury, for both long and short terms. Second district—Representative J. F. C. Talbot, Dem., of Lutherville. Third district—Representative Charles P. Coady, Dem., Baltimore. Fourth district—Representative J. C. Linthicum, Dem., Baltimore. Fifth district—Sidney E. Mudd, Rep., of La Plata. Sixth district—David J. Lewis, Dem., of Cumberland. For judge of the Third judicial circuit, Allan McLane, of Baltimore County.

Smith's Majority, 20,000. United States Senator John Walter Smith was re-elected by about 20,000 majority in the State. This majority is over 20,000 short of that given Blair Lee, Dem., for the Senate last year. Senator Smith is 10,000 short of the majority claimed for him by Democrats in advance of the election.

Two Democratic Congressmen—Michael Donohue and J. W. Logue—were overwhelmed in the Republican landslide and defeated for re-election. The city will send a solid Republican delegation of six to Congress. In the whole State the Republicans will gain possibly fifteen seats over their present representation. The Republicans claim twenty-nine of the thirty-two Representatives from the State. Following are the Representatives known to be elected: First district—William S. Vane (Rep.). Second—George S. Graham (Rep.). Third—J. Hampton Moore (Rep.). Fourth—George W. Edmunds (Rep.). Seventh—Thomas S. Butler (Rep.). Ninth—W. W. Greer (Rep.). Twenty-ninth—S. G. Porter (Rep.). Thirtieth—W. H. Coleman (Rep.). Thirty-first—J. M. Morin (Rep.), re-elected. Thirty-second—A. J. F. (Rep.), re-elected.

Senator Penrose stated that the Republican majority in Pennsylvania will be at least 20,000. He said the landslide was so great that only one-third of the Democrats will be elected.

Capitulation of the Boer Rebels. Cape Town, South Africa, Nov. 2.—The capture of Treurfontein, which had been seized by the Boer rebels, is announced in a dispatch from Pretoria. One hundred and ten loyal soldiers, taken prisoners by the Boers, were liberated.

Several officers of the rebellious Boers under Col. Maritz were captured in a skirmish on October 21 near Schutts drift. Fifty-eight deserters have surrendered and have been taken to Springbokfontein.

Porte Promises Italy Not To Carry War Into Tripoli

By FREDERICK WERNER. Berlin, Nov. 3 (by wireless via Bayville, Long Island).—It is officially announced that Turkey has pledged her word to keep the Islamic movement from Libya. Italy, therefore, has no cause for uneasiness regarding Tripoli.

Reports in the English press, that Gen. von Der Goltz, governor of Brussels, intends to resign, are officially denied.

ROOSEVELT NERVOUSLY TOYS WITH GLASSES, BUT SAYS NOTHING AS STORY OF ROUT POURS IN

Democratic control of the Senate and House of Representatives is assured for another two years as a result of yesterday's elections throughout the country. But the Democratic majority in the House is considerably reduced. Necessarily incomplete returns indicate that in place of the majority of 163 that President Wilson took into office with him, the administration will have to be content with a majority that may not exceed thirty.

Both parties profess to be satisfied with the result. The Democrats declare that the reduction in their majority is not much more than was to have been expected in view of the fact that the Sixty-third Congress was elected two years ago in one of the most overwhelming landslides that any party ever scored, so that a certain return to normal conditions in nation-wide voting was inevitable.

PROGRESSIVES SNOWED UNDER. The Republicans, on the other hand, assert that if the Wilson administration had been as glowingly successful as its adherents claim there would have been scarcely any defections in a Congressional election where the personality of the President and the necessity of lining up solidly behind him in a vote of confidence was made the main issue even in the remotest districts.

The only party that is frankly unable to extract even a grain of comfort out of the situation is the Progressive. There is a tiny particle of heaven even for the Bull Moose in the re-election of Hiram Johnson to the governorship of California, but this is lost sight of in the dense gloom that attends the virtual obliteration of Progressive hopes in every other State where the party put a ticket in the field, except in Kansas, where Victor Murdock was elected to the Senate on the Progressive ticket.

MOOSE SHOWING PITIFUL. In New York and Pennsylvania the Progressive party's paralysis was particularly poignant, though perhaps only a trifle more so than in Illinois. In these three Commonwealths Col. Roosevelt had spent many weary weeks on the stump, exhorting the electorate to rebuke the bi-partisan bosses and rally to the Bull Moose standard. Just how far the Colonel fell short in his home State is indicated by the fact that Frederick S. Davenport, his nominee for governor of New York, did not poll more than half as many votes as William Sulzer, who, in turn,

Democrats Carry Five Districts in Maryland

Special Dispatch to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, Nov. 3.—A Democratic United States Senator, five Democratic Representatives, one Republican Representative and a Democratic judge were elected in Maryland today.

Senator Smith carried Baltimore City over Col. Edward C. Carrington, Jr., Republican, by 15,000.

The men elected are: United States Senator, Senator John Walter Smith, Democrat of Snowhill, by a plurality of from 15,000 to 20,000.

In the Fifth district, Sydney E. Mudd, Republican, defeated Richard A. Johnson, Democrat, for Congress by a substantial majority.

Elsewhere in the State, Democratic majorities are greatly reduced, as compared with results two and four years ago.

Hudson Figures Small. In the First Congressional district, while Jesse D. Price, Democrat, has defeated Thomas S. Hudson, Republican and Progressive, for the short term, his majority over Robert F. Duer, Republican, for the long term, is small compared with Democratic majorities in the district in recent years. Mr. Duer carried Somerset, his home county, by 850 majority.

In the Third district, Congressman J. Fred C. Talbot, Democrat, was re-elected by a large majority. In the Sixth district, Congressman David J. Lewis, Democrat, was re-elected by a largely reduced majority. In the Third judicial circuit, consisting of Baltimore and Harford counties, the result was very close. Mr. McLane, the Democratic candidate, ran far behind John Walter Smith for Senate, and J. Fred C. Talbot, for Congress, but he won out. Harford gave him a good majority. The Republican Congressional candidates in the city, Messrs. Heape, Jannette and Hammond, were all forced to go up against Democratic majorities in registration affiliation. Garrett, Coelt and Carroll Counties indicate victories in all three places for the anti-liquor forces in the local option fights. Both the $1,000,000 sewerage loan and the $1,000,000 harbor loan have been ratified by the voters. Likewise the city voters ratified the proposed constitution, at amendment, increasing the term and salary of the sheriff of Baltimore County.

British Submarine Sunk In Battle with Germans

Special Cable to The Washington Herald. London, Nov. 3.—The press bureau of the admiralty tonight made the official announcement of a spectacular naval engagement which occurred this morning at a place which the admiralty will not yet reveal.

A squadron of German warships, sighted by a British gunboat on patrol, fired on the scout which reported their presence to its base and a British squadron started in pursuit. The Germans fled, leaving in their wake a screen of highly explosive mines, one of which was struck by a British submarine, which was sunk.

Submarine Is Sunk. The official report says: "Early this morning the enemy's squadron fired on the coast guard gunboat Halcyon while it was patrolling. One man on the Halcyon was wounded. The Halcyon immediately reported the presence of the enemy. Various naval movements were made, but the light cruisers could not be brought into action before dusk. The rearmost German cruiser threw out mines and the British submarine D-5 was sunk by a mine. Two officers and two men on the bridge were saved by a gunboat of the British flotilla which had been made available for the support of the Belgian left flank."

Battle Off Yarmouth. In connection with this report the London Star prints a dispatch from Yarmouth telling of a running naval battle in that vicinity which may or may not furnish a clue to the location of the battle officially reported by the press bureau. The admiralty will not admit that the reports concern the battle.

British Fleet Beaten In Chilean Waters; Ship Sunk

Valparaiso, Nov. 3.—Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock's British squadron which has been hunting down the German fleet in Chilean waters, came upon them today and was severely beaten. Two German armored cruisers and three light cruisers sank one British cruiser, disabled and fired another and crippled a third, forcing it to seek refuge in Coronel Harbor, where it is now bottled up.

The German warships Gneisenau, Scharnhorst, Nürnberg, Leipzig and Dresden attacked the British cruisers Monmouth, Goodhope and Glasgow off Coronel early in the day. The Monmouth was sunk, Admiral Craddock's flagship Goodhope was set on fire and is supposed to have been lost and the Glasgow badly damaged, is practically interned in Coronel Harbor.

The Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Nürnberg are in Valparaiso Harbor uninjured. The Nürnberg and Leipzig are standing off Coronel Harbor waiting for the Glasgow to come out.
